VI Background information on Agency/Department/Section

This position is located in the Department of Economic and Social Affairs (DESA), Financing for Sustainable Development Office (FSDO), Policy Analysis and Development Branch. The duty station is New York.

The Policy Analysis and Development Branch is headed by a Chief of Branch, who reports to the Director. The Branch's responsibility is to provide substantive policy analysis on all aspects of the Financing for Development process, particularly the 'Action Areas' in the Addis Ababa Action Agenda (AAAA): domestic public resources, domestic and international private business and finance, international development cooperation, international trade, debt and debt sustainability, systemic issues, and science, technology, innovation and capacity building.

The work of the Branch forms the substantive basis for the FSDO to promote policy coherence within the UN on issues related to financing for development, as well as for the integrated and coordinated implementation of and follow-up to the outcomes of the major United Nations conferences and summits in the economic and social fields, including the outcome of the United Nations Sustainable Development Summit.

The major substantive output of the Branch is the annual report of the Inter-agency Task Force on Financing for Development (IATF). FSDO is the substantive editor and coordinator of the IATF, and works closely with the major institutional stakeholders of the FfD process (World Bank, IMF, WTO, UNCTAD, UNDP), as well as more than 50 other UN and non-UN agencies in producing its report. The report is the main substantive input to the annual ECOSOC FfD Forum. The Branch and FSDO are also supporting the Secretary-General in evidenced-based analytical work to support the SDG Stimulus and reform of the international financial architecture.

The JPO will support the Branch's work on the FfD follow-up process and on the review and monitoring of the AAAA outcomes and the means of implementation, in the context of the IATF and other analytical work of the Branch.
